You Deserve
To Feel Like
Yourself Again

A laser procedure option for gynecologic use

MonaLisa Touch is an innovative tool that physicians have utilized since it was cleared by the FDA in 2014.

MonaLisa Touch[®]

Laser technology may be an option for you

MonaLisa Touch is a fractional CO₂ laser for gynecologic use that delivers energy to tissue. This is followed by your body's natural healing response.

Fast, simple procedures that you can trust

Laser sessions are often less than 5 minutes utilizing technology that's embraced by experts in female pelvic health.

Continue living your life

Most patients may resume their routines within a few days of their procedures and side effects are typically mild in most cases. For a full list of warnings and indications, visit cynosure.com/product/monalisa-touch/

Frequently Asked QUESTIONS

WHO IS THE MONALISA TOUCH FOR?

Patients who feel uncomfortable with the tone/texture or discoloration of their pelvic skin, skin tags/lesions, condylomas, genital warts, or excess labial tissue.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER THE PROCEDURE?

Depending on the laser procedure, your doctor may recommend you refrain from sexual activity for 2-3 days. Generally, patients can return to normal activities afterwards. Your doctor will determine a post-procedure regimen that is right for you.
